

SRI MUTHUKUMARAN MEDICAL COLLEGE HOSPITAL AND RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Chikkarayapuram, Near Mangadu, Chennai – 600069

STAKEHOLDER	FEEDBACK ANALYSIS REPORT (2024– 2025)
STUDENTS	The students' feedback responses were analyzed to show that 95.7% were positive that adequate scope for self-learning is included in the syllabus. 3% strongly disagreed that teachers provided feedback on your performance in internal assessment.
TEACHERS	98.2 % teachers gave positive responses that course content incorporates professional ethics among students. Only 1.8% teachers strongly disagree with adequacy of time to introduce new developments/modules in the subject.
EMPLOYERS	100% employers agree that the employee has good reliability and accountability. The curriculum is relevant and effective in developing innovative thinking was agreed by 62.5 % employers.
PROFESSIONALS	100 % of professionals agree that the curriculum sharpens the analytical abilities of students. Academic flexibility is implicated in the curriculum is disagreed with 2.7%of professionals.
ALUMNI	95% of the alumni positively agree thatthe curriculum was well structured and emphasizes learning outcomes. About 15% strongly disagree that Innovative Teaching-Learning methodologies were implemented in the curriculum.

SRI MUTHUKUMARAN MEDICAL COLLEGE HOSPITAL AND RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Chikkarayapuram, Near Mangadu, Chennai – 600069

STAKEHOLDER	FEEDBACK ANALYSIS REPORT (2023 – 2024)
STUDENTS	The students' feedback responses were analyzed to show that 99 % were positive that the content of the syllabus meets applicability, 97 % that the case-based learning is effective and 95 % that the curriculum ensures professional ethics. 11 % disagreed that the curriculum promotes team work mentality. 11.8% students disagreed with teachers provided feedback on your performance in internal assessment.
TEACHERS	98.9 % teachers gave positive responses that the content of the syllabus meets applicability of subject knowledge to real life situations, the curriculum provides scope for student centric teaching and learning methods. Only 7 % of teachers thought that there was scope for improvement regarding the availability of textbooks/reference books for all the courses
EMPLOYERS	100% of the employers agreed that the communication skills of the employees are excellent and the employees are good in terms of time management and organizational skills. 4 % of the employers disagreed with regards to innovation and creativity.
PROFESSIONALS	100 % of the professionals agreed that the depth and course content of the curriculum is relevant for the graduating student and the curriculum has provision for adding learning values in term of skills, concepts and knowledge. 7 % of the professionals disagreed that the curriculum helps in broadening the perspectives of students.
ALUMNI	99 % of the alumni positively agreed that the curriculum was enabled to build future career and the project work/internships included in the curriculum was challenging and constructive. 19 % of the alumni disagreed that innovative teaching learning methodologies were implemented in the curriculum

DEAN
SRI MUTHUKUMARAN MEDICAL COLLEGE
HOSPITAL & RESEARCH INSTITUTE
Chikkarayapuram Near Mangadu
Chennai-600 069